3 Getting Involved

Semat welcomes a broad community involvement in the tracks' work. Each track has its own working group that you could participate. If you are interested, please contact us (troika@semat.org), or a track leader directly (see below), stating your background, expertise, and how you could contribute to the specific track.

- Definitions track (leader: Brian Henderson-Sellers <brian@it.uts.edu.au>)
- Theory track (leader: Michael Goedicke <michael.goedicke@s3.uni-due.de>)
- Universals track (leader: Ian Spence <ispence@ivarjacobson.com>)
- Kernel language track (leaders: Jean Bezivin <jbezivin@gmail.com> and Ivar Jacobson <ivar@ivarjacobson.com>)
- Assessment track (leaders: Watts Humphrey and Paul McMahon <pemcmahon@aol.com>)
- Requirements track (leader: Martin Naedele <martin.naedele@ch.abb.com>)
